

Dillon Instruments Catalog 2012 - 2013

Founded by Steve Dillon, Dillon Music has been catering to the world's top professional brass and woodwind players for well over twenty years. Dillon Music is known as one of the top "pro shops" worldwide, consistently boasting the best selection of both new and used professional and high-end brass and woodwind instruments and accessories.

Making high quality brass and woodwind instruments available to schools and young musicians alike is a top priority for Dillon Music. Dillon Music has worked hard to develop our own line of student, intermediate, and entry-level professional instruments, priced to accommodate any budget.

Each Dillon instrument has been designed to fit the specific individual needs of our customers. The Dillon student instruments are perfect for any beginner, and are amongst the most affordable student instruments on the market. The intermediate and "step-up" instruments are priced lower than many of our competitor's student-level instruments, and are perfect for the advancing young musician. Our intermediate and professional instruments are also perfect for the professional or advanced player looking for a reliable double.

Every Dillon instrument is inspected and serviced by our world-class repair department to ensure that they reflect the quality and craftsmanship that the Dillon Music name represents.
